“ I was saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I had just found out about this over the weekend. Bob was a great friend that I met years ago in Litchfield as I was his trainer. I called him "Chef!" We often talked about our love for Jesus Christ. Bob is home now. May he rest in peace.

“ My sincere condolences to Lyn and the rest of Bob's family. I have known Bob since we were in elementary school in Downingtown, PA. Bob was always a happy go lucky guy that was easy to get along with. I have been able to keep in touch with Bob over the years. I know that Bob loved his family very much. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren.
