“ Charlotte & Family - My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you & your family during this difficult time. I have many fond memories of Lt. Littleton working with him when I was Deputy Court Clerk in Woodbury. Doris Morris Smith & I talk fondly of him during our visits and we laugh, remembering his wit. It seems so long ago when Ken, the kids & I visited you while vacationing in Myrtle Beach - have also enjoyed your Christmas cards over the years, and keeping in touch. Bob was blessed with many wonderful retirement years - may he rest in peace. God Bless you & your family. Thinking of you in your time of sorrow. Love, Barbara###imported-begin##Barbara Rodgers###imported-end##

“ To all of the Bob's family I send my deepest condolences. Lt. Littleton was my first sgt. at Woodbury PD. I learned so much from him and his sense of humor was incredible. It made my early years as a police officer safe and enjoyable. I owe him so much. I hated to see him retire but he, more than anyone, deserved it. God Bless you all and God Bless Lt. Littleton.##imported-begin##George McKnight##imported-end##
