“ Robert was an amazing man in every aspect of his life!! He listened with intent to anyone that had anything to say or share with out hurry or judgement. He made an impact in many peoples lives with out really even trying, especially mine. I will forever be a changed woman for our short but love filled life. He showed me that the grass was always greener where ever you decided to water it. He may no longer walk this earth but will forever be a driving force in my life and a guardian angel over my soul!! Til we see each other again Boo Boo, you will always be my forever and ever, I Love You to the moon and back, to infinite and beyond, there will never be enough words to express my love, my loss and the forever impact you had on me as...ME!!! Love you Always, Doo Doo

“ To Robert's parents and brothers,

I know that your hearts are totally broken. It has always been said that losing a child is the hardest grief to bear and losing your brother. Many of us cannot totally understand how deep your grief goes. My mother lost two children at very young ages as well. She told me that right after she was given the news of my brother's accident, she fell to her knees and told God that she would not make it without His help. I know it was harder than I can imagine, but God did help her through for many years before she passed. I believe your faith is strong for something you said to me at Robert's memorial, but I also know that you will still have bad days. I especially pray for you on those days.

*You should feel so proud of your son for the very nice person that he was to so many of us and making us laugh which is so important. God bless you all,

“ You were one of the finest young men . I loved going to food lion for many years because of you! I always spoke to you and most of the time we would talk. Even at my age, you allowed me to be silly and would go right along with me and laugh. You were like a magnet for people to want to connect with you. You just had that special way about you.

My heart is literally broken for your family and for all who loved you, certainly, including me. I will change to another food lion,at least for a while, or permanently, because I will become too sad. You had that effect on all who knew you and grew to love you.

God keep you close, my friend.
