“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. My family lived two doors down in Huntington, WV. My father passed away in 1989 and my mother in 1995, both at age 77. My brother Jeff passed away last year from a brain tumor. My brother Bob lives in Virginia Beach and my sister Deana lives in Huntington and works at INCO. I live in Huntington with my husband and daughter and have worked at Marshall University for 30 years. Again, my family is so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Arlene Conner Ferguson##imported-end##

“ Mom Chaput, Laurie, Katie, Debbie, Ray, Sherry, Mark, Toni & grandkids & great grandkids. To Mom Chaput: I am so sorry to hear of Dad Chaput's passing. I know we haven't seen each other in years but I have such fond memories of being at your house on Tallwood, watching Dad Chaput doing the cryptoquip and crossword every morning. I now do the cryptoquip myself every morning. I also remember playing/watching Pac-Man with you and Dad. Both of you accepted me into your home like your own, and I truly treasure those memories. I love you and I pray that God will guide you in the coming days and months. To the children/grandchildren: You guys had a wonderful man as a father and grandfather. He truly set the example of how a man should be as a father and a truly good person. I love you all and God Bless you.##imported-begin##Trish Shepherd & family##imported-end##
