“ Dear Susan and Family, We will certainly miss Rob. He was an inspiration to all of us as he never mentioned his illness. I knew Rob at Clemson, and his devotion to the Tigers was unwavering. Tiger nation lost a loyal supporter, and Huntsman lost a valuable employee. We will keep you and the family in our prayers. Sincerely,

“ Dear Susan, Sara, and extended family, Please accept my deepest sympathies. As much as I already miss Rob, I'm sure that pales in comparison to what you are experiencing right now. “ Dear Susan and Sarah I just wanted to say again what a pleasure it was for me to get to know Rob and to work with him over the past several years. Rob was always the consummate professional, with a sense of honesty and commitment that was an example to everyone around him. Also, Rob, as committed as he was to his career, and to "do things right", always kept a perspective about him, and always made it "about the other person". Rob was not "in it for Rob", but did things because he believed in what he did, and he believed in making those around him feel comfortable, and that Rob cared about them, not about Rob. We will greatly miss Rob at Huntsman in so many ways; many of his skills will not be replaced. But we will miss him most of all because of who he was, and what he meant to his colleagues around him as a human. Our thoughts are with you -- but also feel grateful that Rob will not be forgotten at Huntsman -- he made those of us around him better, and for that he will always be a part of us too. My sincere best wishes to you. Mike Cheek##imported-begin##michael cheek##imported-end##

“ Sorry if my message was incomplete...a computer glitch. But, I certainly am sorry to hear of Rob's illness and death. I worked with Rob years ago at Ciba, but kept up with his travels and customer activity. Rob was a great and caring person and I remember his love of family, the industry, and certainly his talking about the dogs. All our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.###imported-begin##Nelson Houser###imported-end##

I know he was well respected by his peers and our customers. He will definitely leave a large void. Rest in peace, Rob. Your journey has ended. God bless you, Sara and Susan.
