“As a Christian Minister, I would like to extend to you my sincere condolences. When someone dies in the prime of their life, it is especially difficult. God knows how you are feeling and offers hope in His Word the Bible. Please take some time in the upcoming weeks to look up the following scriptures. I'm confident that they will bring you peace and comfort. Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; John 11:11-44 and Ecclesiastes 9:5. My prayes are with your family.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##

“ Bob, We had lots of fun together though the years. Making Huts, making wooden cars to race down the street, granted none compared to yours. Sliding down Masardis Street or starting from the Shoemaker's, through the Farwell's to my yard then to the street or if one liked you could take a left and go through the Carlton's. Morning to dark we would play. We even started a few small business's selling mini maple trees one summer, 3" to 5" tall and one winter we tried selling after Christmas Christmas trees. Didn't make any money though, only one that bought a Christmas tree was Bob Gaylord and he forgot to take it home with him. We were always together. It was always a pleasure when you and Mary would pop in to see Wanda and I when you'd come up for visits. I'll see you again on the other side my friend, Roberto. Mary and Crystal my thought and prayers are with you both, Bob loved you very much.##imported-begin##Paul Leslie##imported-end##

“ From the time I met my husband Paul, I have heard the name of Bob Nickerson. They played as young school kid, on up to teenage years. They remained friends through out the years. Although distances keep them apart, the talk of memories went on. I know I will always hear of the memories of the fun that was shared by these two guys. My prayers are with you Mary and Crystal. Love Wanda###imported-begin##wanda leslie###imported-end##

“ Uncle Bob ... You will be forever missed. I truly valued all the time we were lucky enough to spend together. Not a single minute spent together in person or on the phone would lack a comment about cars or motors and how to make them go faster. I will always remember you for your dedication to your family, friends and passions. Thank you for everthing. God bless you and Aunt Mary & Crystal. I love you all.##imported-begin##Brad Forsythe##imported-end##
