“ I was just talking about Robert yesterday. I remember my brother and I riding go-karts on the dirt roads with Robert & kids. It has been 57 years and I still remember how much fun he was. Prayers for the family.

“ I met Robert 45+ years ago through my job. He was such a fine man. always had a smile when you saw him. He left a wonderful legacy for his family by the life he lived, one of honesty, integrity and character. Remember and hold the good times shared close to heart. They will bring a smile and at times laughter in the coming days.... Sincerely, Kay Benton
