“ Cindy and girls, There's a heart that cares about you and the way you feel today, there's a heart that feels concern in a warm and tender way. There's a heart that knows the sorrow that mere words could not define-and should you wonder whose it is, the heart that cares is ours. A short life well-lived is a precious gift of hope, strength and grace from someone who has made our world a brighter and better place. It's filled with friendships formed and good times shared and laughter through the years. A life well-lived is a legacy of joy and pride and pleasure. A loving lasting memory our grateful hearts will treasure. But we know that nothing that is loved is ever lost, and no one who has ever touched a heart-can really pass away, because some beauty lingers on in each memory of which they've been a part of. Rob was not only our close friend but he was also our son's godfather and he will be greatly missed by our son Christian.##imported-begin##Donnie & Christian Sandoval & Tina Sandoval-Ortiz##imported-end##

“ Cindy, Rich and Families, I'm so glad Robbie reconnected with me in the last few years. He was searching for the love of his life, Cindy. Joni and I were the lucky ones to be the neighbors of Robbie and with that said we are left with some great memories of him and his family. “ What a loss. I have not seen or talked with Robbie in more than 20 years. I have some fond memories. He and a group, including you Cindy shared fun filled, youthful events. When you grow up you come to realize, if you are lucky, how special people in your life have touched you in some way. Robbie was one of those people for me. I am so sorry he is gone. I do still have a nice big scar on the inside of my leg from his convertible corvette. Oh how he loved that car. He will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Susie M. Monroe##imported-end##
