November 8, 1958 - April 2, 2023

Conway...

Robert Edward Spallone, better known as just Bob, gained his angel wings on Palm Sunday, April 2, 2023 in Charleston, SC surrounded by his loving family. Bob was born on November 8, 1958 in Glen Ridge, New Jersey. He was predeceased by his parents, Bob and Irene, as well as his younger brother, Stephen. He is survived by his wife Lisa, his son Rob, as well as countless nieces, nephews, sisters, cousins, in-laws, loyal friends and his favorite pet, Furman the cat.

Throughout his life, Bob was a wrestler as well as a wrestling coach. He coached and mentored many successful wrestlers over the years at Carolina Forest High School. Bob was also an accomplished musician. He played the guitar, piano, produced records and loved to sing. Bob was an animal lover and truly enjoyed being in nature and the outdoors. He also loved to cook and was well known for his culinary prowess.

Bob was a New York Mets superfan and loved to watch them play. He also enjoyed gardening, carpentry and wood-working, and always had an interesting project he was working on. His pride and joy were his wife, Lisa and his son, Rob, whom he loved very dearly, protected and shared a beautiful life with.

We would like to give special thanks to the many family members, friends and the exceptional people that were a part of his beautiful life. He truly loved everyone.

“ The Spallone and Fryer families have been friends going back to our Dads and my Uncle growing up in Orange, NJ. That friendship continued with Bob, Stephen, Charles and I growing up in Parsippany, NJ through today. Losing Bob is heartbreaking. He was such an important part of a group of friends that experienced such great times together but also leaned on each other through the hard times. Bob will be missed by so many. To Lisa, Rob and family - Sending you heartfelt condolences, prayers and lots of love. To Bob - Fly high, my friend. See you on the other side. I love you. Jennifer Fryer
