“ Bob was a fine man and a good friend. I had talked to him several times the week of his accident because he was trying to take me and my boys fishing the next week, liked he had many times over the last 15 years. I always enjoyed fishing with him and being in his and Vaughn's company. Bob was so unselfish and always had a great attitude. I will miss him. Godspeed to Martha and the rest of the family. “ Dear Vaughn and Vickie, We both were shocked and sorrowed about the loss of your dad. We enjoyed living across the street from your house in Garden City for 16 years and the friendship of Bob. I will always remember the good times of fishing trips Bob took me on the original Super Suds and Super Suds 2.###imported-begin###Bob & Hilda Sobon###imported-end##

“ I met Bobby many years ago when I joined the Blue water Fishing Club. He has been a great friend for all these years. I remember so many great times with Bobby; traveling to Florida to Sailfish, the ASKMT trips, the Southport Trips up the waterway on Super Sudds. He will be greatly missed. May our Lord Jesus keep you all in the palm of his hand.###imported-begin###Archie Biggs###imported-end##

“ Dear Felisha and Martha, Please know that we have been thinking and praying for you during the search for Bob. We think of you all often. Bob was a great person-loving and caring for all those around him. Our favorite memories of our teenage years are the times we shared with you all in Florence and at the beach. We will keep in touch better in the years to come. Always, Natalie and Scott.##imported-begin##Natalie and Scott Bedenbaugh##imported-end##
