“ To say I am so sad is an understatement. We only have a few left in this family. Robin and I had so many crazy adventures from The White Lodge to him driving his corvette at 100 miles on Millersport Hwy to putting my Volkswagen in a ditch on Heim Rd. I loved my uncle Ken and Rob so much. Rest well Robin I wish I would have known your passing.

Fond memories go way back remembering the fun times when everyone would collect at the Pine Lodge. Seeing Robin at the Jurek post for pancake breakfast, he was a true Patriot. Robin and Regina were a Beautiful. Couple, I remember their wedding well. Prayers for comfort and peace for Kelly, Alice and Family May God Bless you and keep you in his care

Robin... We were always close, even when separated by circumstances. Being born a week apart and both living and growing up in the old neighborhood was a priceless experience. You are sorely missed my friend...Semper Fi, Marine!
