

Rodney Marshall Lancaster

July 9, 1956 - January 26, 2024

Rodney Marshall Lancaster, 67, passed away unexpectedly Friday, January 26th, 2024. Born July 9th, 1956, in Spartanburg, SC. He was the son of the late Roy Marshall Lancaster, and the late June Lancaster Cline. Rodney was predeceased by his daughter, Karen Bobo and his grandson Gavin Brunetti. Survivors are his wife of 33 years, Connie Lancaster. His siblings Jane Hoffman and husband Vann, David Lancaster and wife Angela, Dexter Cline Jr. and wife Debbie, Jan Evans, Diane Aden and husband Steve, and Richard Cline. His children Marshall Lancaster and wife Bri, Oleta Rheuark and husband Mack, Emilie Scott, Valarie Brunetti and husband Dana, Daniel Bobo; sister-in-law Cathy McLean and husband Gary; brother-in-law Jerry Clary. His grandchildren Jayce and Averie Lancaster, Lauren Jackson and husband Nick, Remington Scott (Alyxandra), Harrison Scott, Grayson and Jack Brunetti; and great-grandchildren Klayton, Boone, Huck, and Oakland Jackson. Rodney was also loved by many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Rodney also shared a special friendship with Robert and Joanna Pastomerlo and family.

Rodney was a family man. He was an avid outdoorsman, tradesman, and traveler who loved to fish and cook, fish fries for his family was his specialty. He specifically enjoyed traveling in their camper with his wife Connie and looked forward to camping at Darlington Raceway with his family. In the last five years, he took on one of his most important roles as Jayce's and Averie's PawPaw. Trips on the golf cart to the park, and to get ice cream were some of their favorite things to do together. If you thought Rodney beamed with joy over his son Marshall, you should have seen him with his newest grandbabies.

Rodney will be remembered for his generosity. He was always helping others, from grilling for the St. James baseball concessions, to helping out on the little league field, to opening up his home to friends when they needed a place to stay. Rodney made an impact on so many lives, and was fondly known as, "The Mayor," of his neighborhood. As our family sits together now to type this obituary, the stories we are sharing of Rodney have filled us with so much joy. Rodney never met a stranger. The saying is true if you knew Rodney you were the lucky one.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM Monday, February 12, 2024, at Surfside Presbyterian Church.

“ Rodney was my neighbor. He was always willing to lend a hand if he saw me doing something in the front of my apartment with that yard. I remember him driving by in his truck happy waving. Always happy Such a great man. I just heard the news with life being so busy I didn't realize I hadn't seen him. I just know Rodney is on 6th Ave South watching over his family and everyone on that street driving his truck for a busy day.

“ Rodney was a great friend... I don't remember how we met him years ago... through a neighbor I think. Marshall came with him to pressure wash our house. I could see how much he loved his son. Later, after Jayce was born, I could see how much Rodney absolutely adored him. Then came little Averie. He posted on FB about her hospitalization when she became ill, and then let us know when she came home... what a loving granddad he was! Rodney and Dana laid a lot of pavers for us on both sides of our driveway. He tried to talk me into making it curvy and planting something along the bricks. I told him I just wanted the whole area done in pavers. He said, "It's gonna look like New York City." He used a descriptive word in there, though. 😊 It's hard to picture Rodney any way other than smiling and joking. He loved teasing me about my hair. I tried to keep it brown, but it looked pinkish in the sunlight. He said it was purple and called me a hippie. Johnny and I marveled at the way he could climb a tree or ladder wearing his shorts and boots and carrying his chainsaw in one hand! A real-life Paul Bunyan! Rodney was a big guy with a soft heart. Johnny said that Rodney was someone that would be hard to forget if you ever met him. He was larger than life. I'm really gonna miss him!💔

We are devastated to hear of Rodney's passing. I first met Rodney at a friend's wedding where I was a bridesmaid and he a groomsman. We were paired together and I felt like I had known him forever as soon as I met him. I loved to hear him laugh. We enjoyed getting together with him and Connie when they would pass through our area with their camper. He was a thoughtful and generous friend and we will miss him terribly. Sending much love and many prayers to his beautiful family.

Jerry's wedding was where I really got to know him also. I was going into the reception and lost my earring in the parking lot. We spent more time flirting than looking for the earring. Then he drove me back the next day so we could look for it in the daylight. Thanks for memories they warmed my heart. I love you both, Connie

I was shocked to hear such a great loss. Rodney was a friend back to the mid 70's, he was someone when you saw him to have great conversations when you could have missed seeing each other for a long period of time. He was always kind to ask how my family was. I could see through his social media the love for his family & oh boy the grandkids was special to him. I know he will be missed by many. RIP my friend! You was a great example and have left a great legacy for your family, friends & community. My deepest condolences to his family. Patricia
