

Roger P Araujo

April 1, 1940 - March 27, 2025

Roger P. Araujo, 84, of Murrells Inlet, South Carolina, passed away on March 27, 2025, following a brief period of hospitalization.

Born on April 1, 1940, in Fall River, Massachusetts, he was the son of Manuel Araujo and Jennie Pollack, and one of ten siblings. He is survived by his devoted wife, Lorraine; his son, Michael and Michael's spouse, Kitty; his grandsons :Andre and Justin Araujo and his granddaughter WeiWei; his brother, Richard; and his sisters, Carol, Diane, and Patsy. He also leaves behind numerous cherished nieces and nephews.

Mr. Araujo graduated from Durfee High School in Fall River and subsequently embarked on a career as an electrician. It was during his high school years that he met his beloved wife, Lorraine. They were united in marriage in July 1961 and shared a loving partnership until his passing. He dedicated 44 years of service to Raytheon, retiring as a foreman. In 2008, he and Lorraine relocated to Murrells Inlet, South Carolina, where they enjoyed a fulfilling retirement amongst close friends. He expressed deep gratitude for the companionship and support he received throughout his life. His favorite hobby was fishing. He always took care of his family and cooked meals for everyone with what he caught during the holidays .

In accordance with his wishes, there will be no formal funeral service. The family will hold a private gathering to celebrate his life and legacy.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to any cancer research center, as Roger was a courageous four-time cancer survivor.

Please sign the family's guestbook at: www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Roger's son Michael is my dearest and oldest friend. We met in 3rd grade, which means I knew Roger for 52 of my 60 years. Growing up, I was over their house more than at my own. Mr. Araujo, as I, of course, knew him, was like a 2nd dad. My memories of him are too many to list. Whether from him stomping the invisible tiny "turks" that were invading the house (to the delight of a couple of 8 year olds), to his hysterical laughter when I came running up to him in a gorilla suit to celebrate one of his birthdays, we always loved to laugh together. He was quick with advice, was kind to me in so many ways, and will always hold a deep place in my heart. RIP Punch-out.

“ I have known Roger for most of my life. I am Lorraine's cousin and was thrilled to be included as a junior bridesmaid at their wedding.

A " good man" doesn't begin to describe him.

He placed his family's needs above his. He was proud of time as an employee at Raytheon. He made the most of it by taking advantage of their training programs, becoming a Master Electrician.

His relationship with Lorraine is to be admired. A true love story. He gladly supported his son Michael's many endeavors: both academic and hockey.

He loved a good joke and his laughter was contagious.

I loved Roger like a brother and will miss him. Rest in peace my dear friend.
