“ Grandpa, i wish you could read this, i wish you never left, i wish that you were here. Days and Days go on, Grandma get's stronger, slowly but sure enough, everyone is, i think of you from time to time, you missed my 13th birthday you know, and Christmas. Shane is growing up, and i know you can see us right now, but it feels like for sure your not coming back, i used to wish it was a nightmare, and it never turned out to be the one you could wake up from. it's 12:15 on October 1st. and i was just thinking of you, i miss you pop's i wish that you could respond to this message, like you used to but i wanted to say i love you, and i hope you enjoy it up there. miss you forever. -Dawn Marie Shelly.##imported-begin##His Granddaughter.##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy and Family, We at the West Milford Elks Lodge #2236 will greatly miss Ron. He was loved by all and gave so much to this Lodge. I personally always loved the man and all of his great ideas and the way he would "get his fur up"! Someday maybe we'll be able to knock out the front wall and put up the sunroom with tables and chairs - like he always wanted. You know that if there is anything we can do for you, we are only a phone call away. Eleven O'Clock now has a new meaning. Love always, Mary###imported-begin###Mary Barrett###imported-end##

“ Aunt Nancy and Family: Our thoughts are with all of you at this time. Uncle Ronnie was a special uncle, godfather and most importantly, a real person who made everyone feel loved and welcome. We will miss him. There are so many special memories. Our family get-togethers were always full of laughs, food and more food, horseshoe competitions, barbeques, adventure hikes, great conversation and most importantly love. We will be in touch and will visit hopefully soon. Love, Barbara, Tom, Tara, Danny, Jackie, and Danielle##imported-begin##Mr. and Mrs. Tom Serpi and family##imported-end##
