“ The Benton family sends there deepest sympathy. I just heard about Ronnie and just wanted to let The Fisher's and all his family know we are thinking about you in this time of sorrow. Maybe Ronnie will run into my Mom and my sister Crystal which have both been gone for along time now. This little phrase was sent to me at the passing of my Mom and it seems to help. "God's Finger touched her/him and he slept" our thoughts and prayer's are with all of you.###imported-begin###Cecilia Benton Peal###imported-end###

“ I miss you brother & wish I could get one of your wonderful hugs that always ended in 'love ya sis'. Monkey misses his game buddy & will always remember teaching his Uncle Ronnie how to play V-Smile. I promise you that we will take care of your Little Angel Deb & will see you again some day. I know you & Terry are looking down on us & making sure we are all okay. We will see you again & you can give me that hug I am missing. Love you my brother!###imported-begin###Your Lil' Sis###imported-end###

“Eulogy written by Debbie, Ronnie's soul mate, and read by her sister, Mary Baker, at the Memorial Service. (Mary) "I'm sure you would understand that my sister Debbie would rather be standing here behind the microphone, but I also am sure you understand just how difficult that would be. She's sitting right there in front of me and has asked me to read what she wrote last night – a small tribute to the man who is the love of her life. I'm honored to do that for her." (Deb's Eulogy)“On April 22nd Ronnie was diagnosed with small cell lung cancer, the most aggressive cancer one can get. We held hands and cried together and then Ronnie looked at me and said o.k. no more crying. Lets move on as he was determined to kick the cancer's ass. Ronnie always beat the odds his entire life and with his willpower, strength and courage he was determined to once again beat the odds that were stacked against him. As this vicious disease continued to grow, attack and weaken my Ronnie physically, he never gave up mentally. He continued to smile and shine with those mesmerizing blue eyes and he would say 'this cancer doesn't know who it's messing with.' The day before he passed Ronnie said 'just 3 more chemo treatments and I'll be back on track.' He just never stopped believing and as we all sit here today we need to honor him and we need to have that same frame of mind and not stop believing that this is all part of the bigger plan. You only get one soul mate in a lifetime and I've been so very blessed to have Ronnie for mine. I have so many many memories of our time with family and friends and of our precious time alone. As I held Ronnie in my arms before he could leave, I made him a promise that I would be alright. I will remember the laughter and tears we shared together throughout the years and we had many of both. I will continue to hold him in my heart and soul forever and continue on this journey that we call LIFE knowing that my Ronnie's strong spirit will be with me daily and give me the same will power, strength and courage as he had to carry me through. I will love you forever, my Ronnie N/A Fisher and may you rest peacefully until we reunite and begin our final journey together.”##imported-begin##Debbie Fisher##imported-end##

“ When I think of Ronnie, I remember his smiling eyes and friendly spirit. His outgoing personality made him instant friends but his kind heart kept us close to him. Deb, Know that I am here for you whenever you need me. We've been through so much together and I love you dearly. Ronnie was so blessed to have you, especially these past few months. This beautiful song "Cry Out To Jesus" by Third Day says To everyone who's lost someone they love, long before it was their time. You feel like the days you had were not enough when you said goodbye. There is hope for the helpless Rest for the weary Love for the broken heart There is grace and forgiveness Mercy and healing He'll meet you wherever you are Cry out to Jesus, Cry out to Jesus##imported-begin##Deena##imported-end##

“ When you think of good friends most people say "you can count them on one hand". Well that may be true, I don't know. That is why I've always considered Ronnie my brother. Even through the ups and downs we were always brothers. Over the past 20+ years we had many good times together. We've worked hard and played harder but this is the hardest. I can't put into words what you have meant to me through the years. I pray that we will hang out again someday. I love you my friend, my buddy, my brother.

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with Debbie & Ronnie's families. How fortunate were we to know Ronnie. We'll always cherish the times we witnessed the sparkle when Ronnie & Debbie spoke of each other, the glow of love that gleamed between them when they arrived in a room. Ronnie's love overflowed with everything he did & his love touched everyone he knew. In his sickness that love flourished & now his suffering is done. Please know Ronnie is riding free, 1 day Debbie & Ronnie will reunite with all. May God wrap his loving arms around these families & just lift them up.
