“ Gloria E Peters lit a candle in memory of Ronald Korondi

Gloria E Peters - January 27, 2020 at 09:17 PM

“ I think about Ron almost every day. I pass by the place he used to live on my way home from work. I often quote a few of his sayings 'It works as implemented', and 'ship it'. I just wanted to add this note that Ron has had a big impact on my life and I continue to miss him.##imported-begin##Michael Young##imported-end##

“ Today I learned of Ron's passing and my heart is sad. I met Ron in 1981 when I went to Bell Labs on rotation from Mountain Bell. He and the consulting crew from Pennsylvania were to become my co-workers, car pool buddies and most of all friends. Ron never did let me forget I was a "hick" from out West!! He made those years in TIRKS enjoyable and memorable by providing his technical expertise, friendship and laughter. His family and friends have lost a good and honorable man. But Heaven has opened its doors wide for a man like Ron. For his family may you find comfort in the love and memories you shared with him. With prayers and sympathy, Lee and Micki Daley##imported-begin##Micki M. Morishita Daley##imported-end##

“ Our hearts go out to Ron's family and friends. He was a true gentleman in every sense of the word...he was always so kind to our family and we will miss his smiling face and wonderful humor. We really will miss him!! With Love, The Aitchison Family###imported-begin###David and Carol Aitchison###imported-end##

“ Ron was a genuine and caring human being, and I very much enjoyed working with him for the time I've been here at Telcordia. You could always count on Ron to know what was "really" going on and to put a humoristic twist on it. I remember all the times we fought on the same side as well as the times that we were not on the same side - no matter what the case, I could count on him being considerate and fair. I started missing him when he moved to South Carolina, and miss him more now. Our prayers and sympathies are with Ron's family.###imported-begin###Jordan Perel###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to Gloria and all members of Ron's family. I, like so many others, knew Ron as a co-worker. Although I miss him terribly, I cannot think about him for long without a memory of his wit, his self-deprecating humor, and his good nature bringing a smile to my face. Ron never missed the chance to point out that it was my fault that he was ?forced? into becoming a Manager at Telcordia ? a position he always said he despised. The truth is, Ron actually volunteered to become a manager, because he knew at that time it was the best way for him to help out his over-worked friends. Ron's career is full of these kinds of selfless acts. We all miss him a lot?

“ Ron reminded me a bit of my father, the hair, the eyes, the humor, the intelligence and his willingness to help. I will miss him, not only for the efforts he put forth in his work but also for the kindness and friendship he extended to me. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife, sons and entire family. Rest in peace Ron.##imported-begin##Kelly Oeleis##imported-end##

“ I knew Ron from back in teh Regal Data Systems day and work on a project closely related to Transport. I never heard anyone say a unkind word about him and I never knew his utter an unkind word about any of his fellow co-workers. He was a gentleman and he will be missed.##imported-begin##William Garcia##imported-end##

June 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Ron's humor, dedication to the job and concern for people are but a few of the fond memories that I will carry with me forever. Ron was a true friend and will be missed in many more ways than I can express. Please accept my sincerest condolences. My thoughts and prayers go out to Gloria and the Korondi family. Ron, we?ll miss you!##imported-begin##Mike Young##imported-end##

“ I feel so fortunate to have Ron as a friend. In the beginning I felt distant from people at work and Ron immediately introduced me to his friends and family. He took the time to get to know me and my family on a personal level and showed me how to loosen up and enjoy work more. He became a trusted co-worker, office room-mate, and later my boss...but I only knew him as my friend. Nobody could ask for a better friend. When talking with Gloria, his sons Greg and Kevin, and longtime friends I can see how Ron lives inside each of them ... his witty humor, good natured personality, and the way he treated others. I'm honored to have known Ron. I will miss you.##imported-begin##Herb Van Helmond##imported-end##

June 13, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Though I only knew Ron as as co-worker at Telcordia, I will remember his quick smile, dry humor and unique way of making you feel at ease. Ron will be missed by many. My sympathy and condolences to the Korondi family.##imported-begin##Barbara Inman##imported-end##

June 11, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My friendship with Ron goes back to 1971 when we met as co-workers at the Philadelphia Gas Works. We got along from the very start since we had a similar sense of humor. I left in 1973 to join a consulting firm and Ron joined that firm in 1977. We both took an assignment at Bell Labs that year and belonged to a carpool from Pa for a couple of years until Ron moved to NJ permanently. I can't begin to tell you all the fun we had. We hooked up again when Ron returned to Bellcore and saw each other again. I last spoke to him a few weeks ago for about an hour and after some serious talk about our age and health we finished up with our usual cut up session. I will truly miss a good friend. My condolences to Gorja and the family.##imported-begin##John Elliott##imported-end##

“ Much more than what you did, people will remember how you made them feel. Ron made people feel welcome. He took time for them and was concerned how they were doing. When he moved to South Carolina, I missed the day to day interaction with him a lot and miss him even more now. He was a good friend to many persons including me. He would want everyone to remember the fish wall plaque he gave me that sang "Don't worry, be happy". I'll keep working on it Ron.##imported-begin##martin michalak##imported-end##

“ Ron was a great friend, teacher and colleague -- always ready to jump into what needed to be done at work or reach out with a helping hand. His zest for life, sharp wit and delightful skill with language always made an interaction with Ron a special time. He will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to his family.##imported-begin##David Levine##imported-end##

“ Ron is, to this day, one of the people that made my job easier and more enjoyable. Even at the busiest and most stressful times, Ron was always willing to take time to talk, meet after work with our wives, or just stop to ask how I was. He is one of the people both Kathy and I miss after moving away. I will now continue to miss him as I remember fondly the personal time we spent together out of the office. Good bye my friend. Gloria, you?ll always have friends in Kathy and myself.##imported-begin##Joseph Aparicio Sr.##imported-end##

“ Ron's dry, witty one-liners, followed by a ?look? were his unique trademark. He always held a watchful eye over his terrific wife, Gloria. She has a heart of gold and now it is broken. But we will help it heal. Ron worked too hard and took his responsibilities very seriously. Yet he did his best to shun all other commitments if a Flyers game was on that evening. And though he was an Eagles fan, he grew up with ?the real game of Football?; that's Hungarian for Soccer. And Oh boy! Sometimes in years past, we overindulged in food, wine and later on in the evening, Sambuca. And it may have even led to some arm wrestling to start off any given New Year. But it was always in good fun; no, make that great fun! The world has lost a real person. He made a difference and he will be missed by quite a few.##imported-begin##Erich Schmitt##imported-end##
