“ Lee, Lane, and Lowell; My deepest sympathy. I just learned of Logan's passing. Although I had not seen him in a number of years, I had been thinking of him recently and remembering the gatherings at Aunt Rie's on Christmas Eve when we would sometimes get to see you. It is a very fond memory and it is what I picture when I think of that kind and gentle man, my cousin Logan.##imported-begin##Elizabeth L Foin##imported-end##

“ He was the best brother anyone could have had. He set a standard for all of us to live by and he will be dearly missed. I will treasure the many fond memories of growing up with him, Luree, and the boys. He truly was a special man. My love and condolences to Luree, Lane, and Lowell. Your are in our thoughts daily. I'm sure he is with our Lord and reunited with the loved ones that have gone on before him. Take care big brother... I miss you. June!###imported-begin###Earl Jr###imported-end##

“ He was my Dad-the best Dad in the world. I know for a fact that he was a Christian and is with Jesus now. He lived a great life with a family that loved him very much and was the epitome of a good example in all things. I know his family and myself will miss him dearly. I love you Dad.
