“ I was one of the lucky ones who played music with Ron on occasion. He had a lot of fun stories that he passed on and loved to put a smile on faces. May God be with the family through these hard times.

“ Vivian: it is with sincere, deep regret for your loss. Some of my very fondest memories are of Ronald Earl and the guys at Bob Bible years ago. He was a sweet, gentle man with a great sense of humor. I would buy a wash tub and he would help me make a bass out of it so I could do my very best to make his pickin' sound bad (smile) since I couldn't carry a tune, but he NEVER said a word. I appreciate very much knowing him and you over those years. May God truly rest his soul! Ron Rice

“ To Vivian, Jennifer and Greg,
I am truly sorry for the loss of Ronald. He was a faithful friend as we worked together at Hadwin-White for 20+ years. Always enjoyed his quick wit and his musical abilities. He was a friend and I will miss his. I know that he is in the LORDS hand and making heavenly music with his friends.
