“ I worked with Jim on the Year 2000 IT program at Cigna. Without the efforts of Jim and other team members, Cigna's Accounts Receivable system would not have worked on January 1, 2000. He was a dedicated worker, a fine man, a strong Christian, and a pleasure to be around. I was privileged to have known him. For believers, death is not goodbye; it's I'll see you later. Until then, may God comfort his family and friends.

“ I am deeply sad for Jim's family in learning of Jim's death. Our sadness is deeply rooted in our Love for Jim. We were HS classmates at Penney HS, in East Hartford, Ct. It was our humble honor to have shared our teenage years together. Jim was a special, genuine, kind guy to all his classmates. Those of us who knew Jim are better people because He always showed the Light of generosity toward us. Thank you from our hearts our fellow Black Knight. Dee & Tom Chauvin

My sincere condolences to all members of Jim's family. I had the pleasure of meeting Jim as a freshman in high school. Throughout our four years, Jim was always so jovial and so kind. He made everyone feel special. I still cherish the times I danced to the music of the Classics, a fabulous band, of which Jim was a member. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I met Jim on a game called Word with Friends and he became my best opponent. I had a very hard time winning him. Then we did something that not many people would do. We arranged a meeting. Him and his wife Linda visited their family in Sacramento California and we live in Albany Oregon so we met each other about 1/2 way between. We each rented a place in a different motel in Eureka California. My husband Doug and I drove Linda and Jim along the northern coast of California and into the California Redwoods because we were familiar with the area having been there a few times. We stopped and saw a herd of Elk at Prairie Creek Redwood State Park. We thoroughly enjoyed each others company. Linda is a pleasure and through our friendship online she made me a beautiful set of scriptural coasters. We have been very blessed to know them both. We are comforted knowing that Jim is with Jesus and we continue to pray for Linda in her separation from him.

“ Herb and I have known Jimmy a long time. My kids remember singing with him when they were young. His smile lit up a room. We are very grateful for our fond memories of him. He is in the arms of Jesus now and his heart is full of joy.

“ Jim was a wonderful friend and sincere believer in Jesus. who was a support and encouragement to me in my early years as a believer when we worked together at the Aetna. Along with others we went many places (prisons, fellowships, and churches) to share our faith together. I will miss him, but know everyone, he is in a better place of this we may be sure..
