An avid collector and restorer of clocks, Mr. Vuillemenot, loved surf fishing, reading on the beach, taking cruises and spending time with his family. He was an avid news and sports watcher, always cheering for his favorite teams the New York Giants and New York Yankees. Mr. Vuillemenot worked for Brookgreen Gardens for 5 years and volunteered there for 10 years. A lover of animals, he especially loved his dog, Petey, and cat, Jack. He was a sea turtle volunteer with S.C.U.T.E. when first arriving in Pawleys Island for several years. For the past five years, Mr. Vuillemenot taught Sunday School with his wife at the Pawleys Island Community Church.

Survivors include his loving wife of 45 years, Sylvia Vuillemenot; children, Kimberly (Jeremiah) Dwyer, CO; Brian (Tenesa) Vuillemenot, CA; Elise Vuillemenot, Pawleys Island; Suzanne (Warren) Boyette, Pawleys Island; mother, Leontine Vuillemenot, CT; sister, Pamela (John) Waesche, CT; grandchildren, Caden Dwyer, Rowan Dwyer, Cillian Dwyer, Robert Vuillemenot, Victoria Vuillemenot, and Aiden Boyette; and many nieces and nephews. “ This is Keith Butters, another Kappa Sigma fraternity brother of Ron and Chuck Rayfield, class of '63. I still remember the little red sports car he had when we graduated. I too, unfortunately, had lost track of Ron. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing.
Sincerely, Keith Butters, Rome, NY.

“ My name is Chuck Rayfield. I saw Ron's name in the latest issue of Syracuse magazine. Ron and i were brothers at the Kappa Sigma fraternity at Syracuse. We graduated together and since we both had jobs in Rochester N.Y. we shared an apartment for a year until I went in the Army. I lost track of Ron. He was a great guy and I will always remember him as he was as a 22 year old.
