

Ronnie Blackburn

February 25, 1958 - July 27, 2014

Mr. Ronnie K. Blackburn, 56, passed away Sunday, July 27, 2014, at his home, following an extended illness.

Born February 25, 1958, in Clinton, NC, Ronnie was the son of A. D. Blackburn and the late Sylvia Jean Wynn Blackburn. He was a retired educator and administrator in the public education system. Ronnie also taught drama at Aynor High School. He enjoyed gardening, plundering in antique stores, traveling, and fishing.

Survivors include his life partner, Jim Chumley; father and step-mother, A. D. and Mary Blackburn; brother, Donnie Ray Blackburn and his wife Melissa; and a step-sister, Robin Monroe and her husband John. Ronnie was predeceased by his mother and a niece, Melissa Dawn Blackburn.

No local services are planned.

Please sign the guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel, is handling the arrangements.

“ I'm very sorry to hear about Ronnie. I know we all can find comfort in 2 Cor 1:3,4 where it speaks of a God of all comfort who will comfort us during our trials....something that his family could use at this difficult time.

“ Jim,

I have not seen Ronnie in over 30 years but we were close friends throughout high school and college. I have many great memories and wished that I had kept in touch. My thoughts are with you.

“ Jim,
I was sorry to hear about your loss. I will always remember how helpful Ronnie was to me during my tenure at Aynor Middle. He played a major role in my success as an administrator. Ronnie will be missed by all who knew him. Please know that you and the rest of the family members have my deepest sympathy. I will keep you in my prayers.
