“ Linda & Family, I was deeply saddened to read of Ron's death in today's newspaper. He and I were friends from the early days when he moved here. We worked together and frequently traveled together in the American Legion and the 40 & 8 functions. He was a dedicated veteran and a good friend and will be sorely missed. Since I am ill myself I regret that I will not be able to attend the service and extend my sympathy in person. However, you can be sure that you will be in my thoughts and prayers.###imported-begin###John Lockaby###imported-end##
