“ Roscoe,

You will surely be missed as Captain of our team, as a friend and a good neighbor.

I will always remember how you told me to keep my feet still, stop moving (dancing feet)

I must have given you lots of gray hair...

I appreciated and learned to play the game... How you teased me about my salvation army golf clubs (you would say GO OUT AND BY A NEW SET) new technology.. I am still using some of the oldies. I got a few new ones.

Becky you stood by your man.. You are a wonderful and caring wife, mother, etc.

Knowing that Roscoe was such a caring person. I know he will be watching over all.

Love, Freddie, Maria & Grandma

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Roscoe;
I cannot recall the many times we played golf with our C&P coworkers and friends but I do recall the fun we had on the course. We worked at the right time because we were a family, enjoyed our work and knew that we had each others back. When I was at the Southwest Test Center and you were at the Southeast Test Center there was no problem that could not be overcome. Your sense of humor made the day both at work and on the course. I, along with all of your friends will sorely miss you. Rest in peace.

Your friend,
Robert (Bob) Miller

“ I'm sorry that I couldn't physically be there with you in your final days but I pray that you know how much you mean to me & you couldn't have been in better hands than what you were. Even though we only saw you a few times a year you were our rock. You were someone to admire, look up to & call for advice. You are one of the kindest people I have ever met & I 'am honored to call you my father-in-law. All the trips to MB & the late nights sitting up laughing until we cried at the kitchen table will always be remembered & cherished. The way you loved your grandkids will NEVER be forgotten. We will make sure to share as many stories & memories with them about the wonderful man they call Grandpa. We love you & still can't believe you are gone. We will miss you FOREVER!
