“ A woman of faith, and grace, and beauty describes Rose Seuss. In her many years as a Eucharistic Minister she would pass by me on a Sunday morning and smile as she left St. James to carry Holy Communion to the home bound. Meeting her first through Myrtle Trace and her neighbor June, I knew Rose best through times together at church. I am grateful for the happy memory of laughing last summer over lunch at the Eucharistic Conference, Jackie, with you and your Mom. May perpetual life shine upon her.

“ I was truly blessed to have had Rose in my life - she was a wonderful friend and neighbor when I lived in Myrtle Trace. I loved playing Mahjong and Bunko with her and her strong beliefs helped me through some difficult times. I will miss you my friend! My deepest sympathies to all of Rose's family.
