“ Jean was a very sweet lady. She was the perfect neighbor always there if you needed anything-but left you alone most of the time. I remember that myself, Monte and Jean all went out for a ladies night out and had the best time. She was very funny and a real good dancer. She would sew the most beautiful outfits, and taught me a few things about sewing over the years. She used to have the nicest garden and was more than willing to share. I will miss seeing her and waving as we passed each other in our driveways. Rest in peace.
