“ It has been many years since Capt. Word has passed. He was a great mentor, and some of the most fun I had in my life was playing for coach Word and learning from Capt. Word. I went on to have a long career in the Marine Corps. He taught me so much about leadership! Fair winds and following seas Sir!

“ To the family of Ross Word, my cousin. I only met you one time I can recall, when you were teenagers, with your family living in Hawaii and most of the other Words living on the mainland. But we had reconnected on Facebook, and I was enjoying getting to know you and see photos of your lovely family. My heart-felt condolences to all of you. I lost my husband, Stephen, unexpectedly less than a year ago. I know the pain you all are experiencing from his sudden passing. Prayers, Janice (Word) Morris

“ Suzi,
Barbara and I were deeply saddened by the sudden death of your husband Ross. As a fellow MOAA member, we considered him a friend. His leadership of the Chapter and dedicated work with the JROTC program made a great contribution to the community. We will remember Ross as a kind, personable man and great fellow officer. God bless!

“ The Three Musketeers. During 2 Med cruises onboard USS Independence in VA-176 in 1982 and 1983-84; that’s how 3 of us were known: Rookie Word, Krank Kraemer and myself Fog Cleghorn. We took care of each other on and off the ship. I did not know either but Rookie was the detailer who put me there and Krank was my BN and roommate. They both are sadly missed. My prayers and best wishes to Rookie’s family and friends.

“ Ross, as cousins I am sorry that I never knew you better. I remember meeting you in 1965 when your family made a trip to the Southern California mainland. You were staying in Oxnard with Uncle Bob and Aunt Nadine. You led a proud and brave life in service to the U.S. Navy.

*Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!*

Rest in Peace, Ross

“ Hi Susie,
I am very sorry for your loss. I had the great experience of serving with Ross on board USS Enterprise as members of VA-196. Ross was one of my roommates in a somewhat infamous JO bunk room. It was here that he earned the life long nickname of "Rookie". Through all the razzing he received from us, Rookie never took offense but always reacted in his naturally good hearted manner. I am very happy that the nickname stayed with him throughout his distinguished Naval career. Ross was a special man and I am a better person for knowing him. God bless to you and your family, “ Sincerest sympathy to Rookie's family and friends. He is and remains a legend in the Intruder community. His unique leadership style and humanity influenced and helped many. He did more than his bit in this world and you can be proud of his legacy and rejoice in the many great memories he helped create for others.

Sincerely,

The Beav,

“ Captain Word was my NJROTC instructor at Carolina Forest High. I was there during the first year of the program and learned a great deal from him. He was a great instructor and would help anyone out that he could. He and SCPO did and awesome good with the Program and had a lot of newbies to deal with, but they never let it show that we probably gave them more than a few headaches.

“ I served onboard the Independence (CV-62) when Ross was a LCDR or CDR, can't recall which. But he was a fine example of a Naval Officer and treated his Enlisted shipmates with respect & dignity. He will be greatly missed. Keeping all his friends and family in prayer. - Brooke Ridge, HM2, USNR (Ret.)

“ Susie, children and grandchildren:

I had the opportunity to serve with Captain Word in Vietnam, in Attack Squadron 196. After family, those I served with remain the most memorable and remarkable people in my life. Rookie was one of them. In very difficult and testing times, he was as fine a man as I ever met. I cannot remember, in very difficult circumstances, Rookie ever changing, ever deviating, or not smiling. I am sorry for your loss.

These are my favorite comments on my dads passing. He was so kind, smart, empathetic, hard working and gave everything he could to his family, his job and his students. I'm looking forward to meeting everyone whose lives he touched at his memorial ❤️

“ As a decorated Viet Nam combat veteran, it was indeed an honor and a privilege to serve with "Rookie" Word. To this day I fly (Private) wearing a pair of "brown aviator boots" he gave me when XO of VA-176- Thunderbolts on the "USS INDEPENDENCE -CV-62). Rest in Peace with God's Angels my friend and mentor. You will be missed by many and never forgotten.

To the family, may God continue to strengthen each of you during this most difficult time. You share our deepest condolences and know that CAPT "Rookie" Word was truly one-of-a-kind special to us all!

“ One of the finest Naval Officers that I have ever had the pleasure to serve under. XO of VA-176, the Thunderbolts, at the time. Graciously welcomed me into the Ready Room as a temporary replacement BN to cover an umnplanned move. Epitomized leadership and comaraderie. Never saw him without a smile. Rookie...remember Palma 1986. I will. To the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you during these tough times. I can guarantee he is in a good place smiling down on us all. He made a difference and he will be missed.

Rookie was my first skipper in A-6's. He was always positive, uplifting and generous. His love for his family was a driving force in his life. I will never forget the large "Babe" on the nose of his plane on the flyoff in 1987. Fair winds and following seas skipper. TJ

Rookie was a VA-128 "RAG" instructor in 1976, the Bicentennial Year. He was always enthusiastic and respectful of us nuggets - Fleet Replacement sticks and B/N's - learning the A-6 systems and tactics from experienced vets like him. Never flew with him but he was a big influence on our class. What a great guy! Phil Conroy, VA-115 1976-1979, USS Midway.

Having the pleasure of serving with Captain Word in VA-115 (NAF Atsugi, Japan and aboard CVA/CV-41) my memory serves me in remembering how practical and respectful Captain Word was towards his sailors. I recall many occasions of his attitude and demeanor towards all whom served with him commanding a presence of respect. Captain Word had a deep respect for the Uniform and our United States of America. May God Bless you Captain Word and may peace be with your family.
