

Royce Fink

April 27, 1940 - July 1, 2018

Myrtle Beach.....

Royce Fink, age 78, passed away Sunday, July 1, 2018 at Conway Manor with his wife by his side.

Royce was born on April 27, 1940, in York County, PA, the son of the late Howard and Pauline Cassel Fink, who were Dairy Famers. He had an idyllic childhood and enjoyed the outdoors while working with his family on the farm during summers. Deer hunting with his friends and family was a really enjoyable activity for him throughout his early years.

In 1962 he married his high school sweetheart, Susan (Lau). They became interested in local food, growing and cooking regional dishes from their Pennsylvania Dutch heritage. Myrtle Beach became one of their favorite vacation spots, and they moved here in 2001, after taking early retirement.

Royce and Susan traveled several times to Great Britain to enjoy the historical bucolic small market towns and local food. They joined the Waccamaw Market Co-Op to support sustainability, diversity and recycling. Royce was an avid golfer, playing frequently before his illness made it impossible to play.

In addition to his wife of fifty six years, Royce is survived by his son, Andrew, of Myrtle Beach; daughter, Wendy Miller (Steven); and grandson, Aidan of Las Vegas.

Royce was a quiet, friendly person who had many friends both in PA and Myrtle Beach. He will be especially missed by his “little buddy”, Lucky, a sweet West Highland Terrier, who was his constant companion.

Royce believed that all living things that have been a part of our world are still here, in one form or another. So love will always exist, because it is the strongest living thing there ever was and is.

A private, green burial will be held at Dust to Dust Cemetery in Swansea, SC.

Memorials may be made to a charity of your choice.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

“ Dear Sue and family
My deepest sympathy on the loss of Royce! I was thinking of him today because I found a little house that he had made for my mom for under her Christmas tree. (cousin Deloris) so I thought I would look for him on Facebook and his obit. Came up. I was sad to see this. I remember the many visits you guys made to Wehrlys Auction and I remember him as a child going to visit his mom & dad. I also have a ceramic watermellon he painted for me & I still have it! I hope you all are doing well and again my deepest sympathy! Holly Hengst Geiple
