Tribute Wall

“ I would like to extend my sincerest sympathies to the family of Ruby Ammons. Losing a mother is a devastating experience. We long to be with our family and when death takes one of them away from us, we have a void that is difficult to fill. This is understandable because we were created with the desire to live forever. At Ecclesiastes 3:11 the Bible tells us,? God has put time indefinite into our hearts.”

God's word the Bible is a great source of comfort because it helps us to understand a promise God made to us through his son, Jesus Christ. That promise is that of a resurrection for all those who have fallen asleep in death. When Jesus spoke about the condition of the dead, He did so with regard to Lazarus, a man whom he knew well and who had died. Jesus told his disciples: "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." John 11:11 When his disciples didn't realize what Jesus really meant, plainly Jesus said, "Lazarus has died." John 11:14 Jesus compared death to rest and sleep. Lazarus was at rest as if in a deep sleep. Interestingly the word "resurrection" literally means a standing up again. And that is exactly what Jesus did for Lazarus when he went to visit Lazarus' family. This is what Jesus Christ's own resurrection guarantees that we can be confident of a resurrection for Ruby. At John 5: 28,29 we read: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Imagine the joy that you will feel when one day without notice you see in the distance Ruby walking toward you. You hesitate for a moment, thinking this can't be her, and yet you now realize what has happened. You start running to greet her and she starts running to you. Warmly embracing each other with tears of joy, you've been reunited. That will be a joy beyond words! This scene is recorded for us at Matthew 28: 5-10 regarding Jesus' resurrection. This is a promise from God. At Hebrews 6:18 we can read, "In order that, through two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to the refuge may have a strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope set before us." It was my intention to bring you some comfort and hope for you and your family. You are never alone. My prayers are with you at this time.##imported-

“ Patty and Karen, I am sorry to hear about your mom passing. I have a lot of memories of your mom and all she did for us to keep us safe in the alley and the streets of Conway. She was always looking out for us and she is now looking down on us!! I am sure she and Ed have a lot of catching up to do!!!! I will pray for both of you as you go through these next days. Know that I love you both and hope to see you soon! God bless and keep you!!!!###imported-begin##Evelyn Wakefield###imported-end##
