

Rufus Junior Skipper

January 22, 2005

AynorRufus "Junior" Skipper, age 78 of 12th Ave. died Friday, January 21, 2005 at Conway Medical Center. Mr. Skipper was born in Horry County, a son of the late Rufus Lester and Effie Squires Skipper. He was a dedicated Christain and a member of the Aynor First Baptist Church where he served as deacon, Sunday School Superintendent and teacher. He was a member of Graddy Masonic Lodge #257 AFM and Woodmen of the World. He was predeceased by a son, James Michael Skipper and granddaughter, Kelly Lynn Collins. Mr. Skipper was a US Army veteran serving in Germany as an infantryman during World War II and was an avid fisherman. Mr. Skipper was the owner and operator of Service Barber Shop in Aynor where he cut hair for 57 years and was a farmer. Surviving are: his wife of 57 years, Barbara James Skipper of Aynor; one son, Rusty Skipper and his wife Missy of Aynor; one daughter, Cheryl S. Collins of Chattanooga, TN.; four grandchildren, Sally Collins and Cliff Collins, both of Florence, Jamie Skipper and his wife Angie of Marion; and Garrett Skipper of Aynor; and one great grandchild, Sophie Skipper; three brothers, J.M. Johnson and Cecil Johnson of Mullins and Billy Johnson of Florence; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at 3:30 P.M. Sunday from Aynor First Baptist Church with Rev. Micah Lane and Rev. Jerry Love officiating. Burial with military honors will follow in Aynor Cemetery directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. Memorials may be sent to Aynor First Baptist Church Building Fund, PO Box 651, Aynor, SC 29511.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Mrs. Barbara and Children, I am sorry for your loss, Mr Junior will surely be missed by all. May your days be filled with warm memories of your times together.##imported-begin##Peggy Reynolds Martin##imported-end##

February 06, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Rufus was a good man and always a pleasure to talk to. He will be missed. James, Anna, and Tyree send our condolences.##imported-begin##james gaskin##imported-end##

January 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM