“ Just thinking about you. I miss you and "Ma-Ma" so much, but I know that all is well and that you and MaMa live on somewhere in some form. Death is nothing more than a transition. We are all connected and it's impossible for anything, including death, to sever that connection. I'll see you both again whenever my time to move on comes. Know that I'm not in the least bit afraid of death, as I don't look at it as the majority of people do. In fact, I'm extremely curious to know more about it, but not in a hurry to find out those answers just yet. I have more to experience here first. As you know, we have forever! I love you both.

“ I met Larry and his brother Chris about ten years ago when Larry worked with my ex-husband, Jeff Isenberg, for the Town of Surfside Beach. I remember how hard he worked to be a good father to Christina. We had some good times back in those day playing in Beach Volleyball tournaments, and bowling for the Town of Surfside league. I am so sorry to see that he has passed away at such a young age. My thoughts and prayers are with Larry's entire family during this tragic time. Sincerely, Annette Isenberg Nerone##imported-begin##Annette Nerone##imported-end##
