“ I met Russ at the Nalls home in Union. I enjoyed hearing Richard tell about their golf games through the years. During football season, Russ would call Richard and tell him what happened on the next play. This would make Richard so mad, because Russ was about a minute ahead.

The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. RIP!!

“ Russ was a good Christian man who showed his love to his wife, Marlene, their families and friends. Russ and Marlene were such a loving and fun couple whose door was always open to anyone who needed a place to stay. Russ loved his church and was eager to be one of the first there to make coffee and greet his friends and other church members. Although I will miss seeing and talking to him, he was ready to go home and meet his Savior. If there is a golf course in heaven, he and Richard have already played and "fussed!"

“ Russ & Marlene were very dear friends of ours. We shared many good times in Union, SC and also in their home as well. They always made us feel so special. I'm sure Russ had many lonesome days after Marlene passed, now they can be together again. Rest in peace my friend, you will be missed.

“ Pops was a " Cool " guy in more ways than one. Didn't say a whole lot, but what he said was always on the money. Will miss having good conversations and breakfast with a really nice guy..... Your friend, Tony.

“ Russ and Marlene became special friends through my sister, Vicki and her husband Richard Nalls. For a number of years, they traveled to Union to attend our Progressive Dinner at Christmas. We enjoyed each others company and shared many laughs. Russ always let us know he was praying for us during periods of bad health as we did for him. May you rest in peace.
