“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ To all of you, we're so sorry about this tragedy. We're all hopeful of a carefree and productive life for our children and grandchildren but the frailties of life run us over sometimes. May you find strength, comfort, and peace as only Our Heavenly Father can give during this sad time. You'll probably never get over this but hopefully you'll learn to cope with it until we see him again. Hold on to God, he's holding on to you. We love you.

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Strickland,
I was blessed to have taught Russell at CFHS. He was one of my students to touch my heart and leave a lasting impression on me. He was an amazing student and had a great personality. He always came into my class with a smile. I was told once at a funeral that we are all like library books and God has stamped our due date on us when we are born. Unfortunately Russell's due date was June 13, 2014. Way to early for most of us to understand. You all are in my thoughts a prayers. Sorry I can't be there, but I moved back to WV 2 years ago. I am there in spirit with you. Mrs. Wellman
