“ Elise and family, my condolences to you on the passing of your mother. She was a lovely, talented lady. My parents, Martha and Fred Schmidt, were very good friends of your grandparents. My mother was your mother's Godmother. When you grandfather came over to this country, he boarded with my parents. They remained friends. I would love to hear your grandmother's infectious laugh when the ladies had their coffee klatch. I remember as a child going from Jersey City to the lake. I am a widow and live in the senior community at the Renaissance in Manchester. I am a cousin to Joan (Huebsch) Leather. Sincere best wishes. Elsie Tuttle lcrenaissance@aol.com

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Dear Harry and Nan,
Ruth was such a beautiful lady. We truly enjoyed our visits with her when we were in SC. She had a sharp wit and a great mind. She will be deeply missed. May happy memories bring you comfort in the days to come.

“ Ruth will be greatly missed by those honored to bring the Eucharist to her at Grand Strand Health Care. She always greeted me with a smile and shared a "God Bless You", blowing a "see you" kiss as I left. This faith-filled lady is surely in the arms of the Lord. Looking forward to the opportunity to extend personal condolences to Harry and family at the Memorial Service.
