

Ruth Farmer

January 10, 1930 - March 25, 2011

Ruth Colman Farmer, 81, of North Myrtle Beach, SC passed away March 25, 2011.

She was born January 10, 1930 in Sparta, Wisconsin to the late Bud and Olive Colman. She was preceded in death by her husband of 44 years, George Patrick Farmer.

Ruth grew up in Wisconsin partially explaining her passion for the Green Bay Packers and sensible warm approach to life. Ruth attended Elon College.

Ruth was a resident of North Myrtle Beach for the past 15 years. She lived a full and passionate life. Her passions included community service, bowling, jazz music and playing the piano. Most recently, she was an active member of Trinity United Methodist Church and volunteered with the Grand Strand Mobile Meals.

Ruth is survived by her two sons, Patrick Alan Farmer (Georgia Myer) of East Calais, VT and Peter Russell Farmer (Gail Farmer) of Gastonia, NC and her two daughters Pamela Lynn Farmer (Beverly Benson) of San Francisco, CA and Paula Lee Threatt (Bobby Threatt) of Easley, SC; her grandsons Justin Alan Farmer of Virginia Beach, VA and Robert Benjamin Threatt of Easley, SC; her great granddaughter Vivienne Threatt of Easley, SC; her sister

Donna Herring of Raleigh, NC; her nephew Stan Harper (Dotti Harper) of Greensboro, NC and niece Laura Harper of Olympia, WA along with numerous beloved great nieces, great nephews, cousins and an enormous number of lifelong friends scattered across the United States.

Ruth has requested no funeral service. There will a private service attended by her immediate family during her internment at Hillcrest Cemetery in Conway, SC.

The family expresses their gratitude and thanks to her extended Trinity United Methodist Church family and Joy Milton and Tammy XXX with Mercy Hospice for their love and support.
