“ Aunt Mae remains in my memories for as long I can remember. Easter egg hunts, Sunday dinners with uncles, aunts and plenty of cousins to play with. Although I moved away at 12 and only got to visit once after that (1977) she remained my favorite aunt. Her love of her family and the way to took care of them, expecting nothing in return, is an example we can all learn from. May she finally have the peace and rest she has earned and deserves. My love to all of her family in So. Carolina from her family in Idaho.
