“ Sarah & Wayne: I just want you both to know that you have been in our thoughts and prayers the past few days and months. I can't imagine the grief you must be feeling now, but a song that I heard many years ago keeps coming to mind and I want to share a verse and the chorus with you. There are those that have a boy or girl, a lovely gift of God. But then sickness or a tragedy takes them from their parent's arms. Momma's wish for days gone by, Daddy's long for that lost child. But the children are not lost, when you know where they are. Jesus has a rocking chair. And He holds that precious baby with oh, such tender care. He takes the place of Mom and Dad, He's the greatest parent a child could have. Don't worry about the children there, Jesus has a rocking chair. I pray that you will find peace in knowing that you can be with Ryan "Sunshine" one day soon. I appreciate all the visits you made to the office too. You all have touched my life in more ways than you will ever know. Love & Prayers, Cherlyn & John Holmes##imported-begin##Cherlyn Holmes##imported-end##

“ I saw this poem and thought of Ryan. I Love Ryan so much. His picture will always be on my desk so I can see that little angel everyday. I will always be here for you guys. LITTLE ANGEL
There's a little baby angel looking down from above Wants you to remember about our Father's love Never catches a cold or sickness of any kind Never has a bad thought that ever comes to mind Never feels sad or lonely there's lots of children there There's never any danger in the Father's care Walks in mist of angels who laud him with song Dwells in God's presence where little children belong##imported-begin##Lisa Lane##imported-end##
