“ Sage was a breath of fresh air and soul passion when she visited our office. We adored her artsy right brain and all her projects. She always expressed her deep love for her children and all her family; she was very thankful for her amazing supportive family. We will miss her life force glow but we are assured she is laughing, running and well at this moment. Praying for all her family.

Rodney and Rhetta we're so so sorry for your pain but we know that she's face to face with Jesus, the One that she adored and worshipped her for ever so long . I didn't get to know her very well but I knew she was very happy and very much loved... I also know that The Father God also has a hedge around you all so no weapon formed against you will prosper... Although I've never been in the pain you're in and I'm 61/2 hours away please know I have the long distance air hug holding you both close and the best thing I can ever give you is to hold you both up to God in prayer. We love you both very very much.
