

Salvatore Trovato

May 8, 1939 - April 24, 2018

Conway, SC

A most wonderful charismatic man has passed away. Darling husband of Lisa Trovato, adored beyond belief by his daughter Luanne Trovato and her husband Ceasar Silecchia, loved by his stepchildren Deborah Varriale and her husband James Stone, Richard Adam Varriale and his ex – wife, Erika Anticono, and the light of his life, his grandsons, Dominic, Marco and Paolo Varriale. He will also be greatly missed by so many friends, but especially his buddy, Guido LaMaire. His devoted companion, Tony Dog, seems lost without him.

Originally from Brooklyn, NY, he served in the US Army, he loved his life and house on the Waccamaw River. He was quite, simply, the most moral, honest, loyal husband that I could have ever hoped for. My life went in slow motion the moment we met. We had a loving and funny and crazy relationship that I will miss until we meet again. My sweet Sal, you are finally pain free. Go cloud jumping with Mama and Chopper and Fredo and Thor Dog.

A Celebration of Life service will be held up North at a date to be announced.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel, is serving the family.
