“ To the Sally Kelly family: Sally was the kindest, sweetest angel that I ever knew. She will long be remembered for all the great deeds she did on this earth. As a neighbor I once knew, she will always have a special place in my heart. God bless her soul, and god bless her wonderful family.

“ Sally was our neighbor at Providence Forge for many years and served on our Owner's Association Board. It was a joy to serve with her because she had good, common sense. We also had a very personal relationship and visited each other's homes often. We went to church together. I will always remember her upbeat attitude, her grace, her spunk. She always lived in the present and loved her Bridge games. She was just a delight to be with. When she moved to South Carolina, we really missed her. We will never forget her big smile. She will always be a part of our hearts. Our hearts and prayers go out to her family.
