“ I've only met him two times, Though my mother says I've met him when I was about one or two, He was a kind man. Really Nice and Laid back. I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw him at Jorden's graduation, All dressed up and beaming with excitement to be back in oklahoma especailly for his grand daughters graduation. I was so shocked to hear the news about his sickness. It was so shocking to me that a man I was with not more than a few weeks ago, would be leaving the world. I remember talking to him over the when My aunts, uncles, cousins and mother went to visit him, I asked him how he was doing, and he told me he was fine and not to worry one bit about him. That still tears at my heart and I wish that I could've made that conversation just a little bit longer. I'm glad he isn't suffereing anymore and he's in a better place and that his funeral was just how he wanted it. My love is with him still.##imported-begin##Lyndsey Macks.
