

Samuel Kelly Hodges, Jr.

July 2, 2008

Conway.....Mr. Samuel Kelly Hodges, Jr., age 74, died July 2, 2008 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center unexpectedly. He was a son of the late Samuel Kelly Hodges, Sr and Helen Elizabeth Tyler Hodges and predeceased by one brother and five sisters. Mr Hodges was a US Army Veteran serving during the Korean conflict. He attended Maple Baptist Church. Mr. Hodges is survived by one sister Mrs. Ida Mae Baker Gaius of Holly Hill, SC; one nephew Kenny Jordan Connie of Plantersville, SC; two nieces, Johnnie Kay Countiss of Conway, SC and Annette Jordan of Tucker, GA; one great nephew and four great nieces. Also surviving are two great-great nephews and five great-great nieces. Services for Mr. Hodges will be Friday, July 4, 2008 at 11:00 AM from Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel with the Rev. Gary Reeves and Rev. Gaius Baker officiating. Burial will follow in the Cane Branch Baptist Church Cemetery. The famiy will receive friends from 6-8 PM Thursday at the funeral home. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is serving the Hodges family.

Tribute Wall

“ My father recently bought the little trailer where Mr. Hodges lived in Myrtle Beach from him. Mr. Hodges seemed to be a kind, decent, and truly honest man -- a great rarity in this world. I am sure you will miss him a great deal, as will we. While we unfortunately never got to meet his family, you have our most sincere sympathies and may God bless you all.##imported-begin##Ted B. Williams##imported-end##

July 04, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ He was the Brother of my Mother -in Law God Bless all shirley .Late Husband Donnie M Page Son Of Elvie H.Page##imported-begin##Shirley Hardee Page -Porter##imported-end##

July 03, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ He was the Brother of my Grandmother Elvie H.Page God Bless him on his Jorney to Heaven. Bless all that adored him.##imported-begin##Barbara Page Bennett##imported-end##

July 03, 2008 at 12:00 AM