“ We moved to M beach 16 years ago and Terry and Sandi were the only two people I knew. Terry's guidance sent us to CNB to do our banking and through the bank we ended up at St Paul's in Conway. We spent many happy evenings together, I should say great evenings. Both were very smart people and it was a joy to just sit and listen to them. Morgan spent some evenings with us also. Morgan I still remember that bottle of wine we gave you to take home. Well I guess that's enough, Sandi, Terry we will always love you and have nothing but wonderful memories. Oh I forgot, I must mention this. Sandi was in love with Gen. Robert E Lee and a very proud Southern lady. From time to time she would always remind me that my birthday and General Lee's were on the same date and then I would remind her that also was Dolly Parden's. Well enough, Morgan we live in VA now but we want you to know that we are here for you.

*Morgan God Bless you, Hannah and your entire family.

“ Sandi was by far one amazing woman. I had the pleasure of working with her and Terry years ago at The Horry Shopper. It was great getting to know them over the years and I certainly learned to love them both so much. It's a friendship that I will always cherish. Fly high sweet Sandi, you were one more fiesty red head that truly will be missed.

Prayers for the entire family. Sandra helped me with many projects in the mid eighties and nineties for the Theatre of the Republic in Conway. She was always eager to donate her time and talent for worthy causes.

I also interviewed her on TV for antiques, something else she dearly loved.

May God hold all of you close to His heart.

“ I am kinda lost for words. Sandi was one of the best friends I have ever had on earth. We had a special bond and friendship that I will never forget. We prayed together many times for our trials and temptations. I love her and will miss her greatly.

I want to offer my greatest condolences to all of the family and friends in this time of sorrow. However, I know she is in heaven tending to God's garden....REST IN PEASE MY SPECIAL FRIEND...

“ I loved my friend Sandra. She was so happy vibrant and bright as her beautiful red hair. Her laugh was infectious. She's smiling down now on her girls and grands happy she's joined her Terry. Praying for your comfort during this time and may your memories make you cry happy tears. Love you all!

“ I think saw my aunt Sandi all of two or three times in my life, but to speak to her on the phone was as if we lived next door to each other for an eternity. She was so loving and kind. She always told me she loved me several times during any conversation.

I remember visiting Aunt Sandi and Uncle Terry when I was quite young and they lived in the 'swamp' - she regaled us with stories of sightings of ghosts of Civil War soldiers and even General George Washington, himself roaming in the woods near their home.

She was a fantastic story teller and I have wonderful memories of that trip. Her heart was big and the love she shared with others even bigger. She will be very missed and I offer my heartfelt condolences and prayers for strength to the entire family.

Love,

Meredith (Appleby) Anderson
