“ I recall visiting my Dad and Sandra in South Carolina when I was living out in Oregon. We hadn't seen each other in person in over 10 years at that point. We had a great visit driving around in Sandra's convertible and exploring Brook Green Gardens and a few other places. I recall Sandra's love for owls.

“ As we grew up my sister Sandra was a redheaded firecracker. She loved animals and owned a horse as a teen. I recall as little children when a full moon was in the sky I would tease her and ask if she wanted the ball in the sky. She always said yes. As we aged Sandra grew more fragile. She met Bob, loved him deeply, and they married. Their love for each other was always evident. My kid sister could not have found a better man. I weep for both Sandra and you brother in law.

“ I'm glad I got to meet your wife a couple of times when we first met Bobby. It helped me understand what a compassionate human being you are. You also educated me on the tribulation of us all aging. I feel your pain, friend.
