“ My sincere sympathy to the Watts and Parker families during this special time. It was a pleasure to work with Sarah at CMC. We've shared such good memories together. My prayers and love to all her relatives/families.

“ I was saddened to hear about Sarah's passing this morning. I know she is with the Lord and her beloved Hoyt, though, and I hope that thought gives all of the family great comfort. I last saw them together, when I visited them, just before Christmas in 2019. It was such a sweet time together. Shortly after that, Covid occurred, which has kept me from getting down there to visit. Mama and Daddy so loved Hoyt and Sarah. Hoyt would come by and visit Daddy just about every Friday until Daddy passed away. It was always so good to see them, hug them, and "catch up" on things in Tilly Swamp. They were "much loved," and will be missed greatly.
