“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ When I married her son Chet, no one could have been more gracious and welcoming than grandma and grandpa Proctor. Grandma truly was one of the strongest women I have ever known and she loved her family with every fiber of her being. She also had a quick wit and a wickedly delicious sense of humor which she passed on to Leslie and Chet. I miss her.

She really enjoyed those years. Even so much as to get me a job with the Turtle Club when I was 15. Thanks for remembering her Sea Mist days.

“ *May God bless you as you go through this time. I remember your grandmother visiting my room often as I taught you, Chester, in 4th grade. She was precious to talk to about SC and you and your dad.
Love to all. Judy Sasser Sharpton*

Mrs. Sharpton. You are so kind to come and post that. Grandma loved you almost as much as I do and was so thankful to be allowed to come to our room. Thanks for remembering her and the way she spent most of her time, doing for me. God bless - Chester

“ Leslie - you were so good with your Mother! She is very proud of you and all you did for her. There were challenges but you met them head on together. We can only hope that when our time comes, there will be someone like you there to help us through to the other side. God Bless you for everything you did!
