

Savannah Catherine Carroll

April 6, 2005

Savannah Catherine Carroll, age 7, of Cox Ferry Circle, died Wednesday, April 6, 2005 at Conway Medical Center. Savannah was born September 17, 1997, in Georgetown, a daughter of Boyd Mack Carroll II and Daynia Kay Cornelison Carroll. She was a precious gift from God. She was in the first grade at Waccamaw Elementary School, where she was a wonderful student and friend. She attended Christ Community Church, and her love and passion for Jesus was obvious to all who were around her. Savannah was a beautiful girl, with long blonde hair and beautiful blue eyes, and she possessed a rare inner beauty beyond her years. She loved life and especially dance, gymnastics, playing with family and friends, and her most recent interest of horseback riding. She was predeceased by great-grandparents, Ammie and Elmo Cornelison, Mack Neil Carroll, Sr. and Willie Mae Carroll. Surviving in addition to her parents of Conway are one brother, Jeremy Mack Carroll and a sister Sarah Ashley-Rose Carroll both of Conway; maternal grandparents Gerald and Twila Cornelison of Loris; paternal grandmother Deborah Ruffner of West Virginia; paternal grandfather Boyd Mack Carroll of St. Stephens; great-grandparents Donald L Duerk, M.D. and Elnita Duerk both of Myrtle Beach; great-grandparent Irene Craig of Springfield, MO. Funeral services will be held 2:00 PM Saturday from Christ Community Church with Rev. Philip Miles officiating. Burial will follow in Hillcrest Cemetery, directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Friday at the funeral home.

“ Words can not express the sadness and shock I felt upon hearing of Savannah's passing. I remember how beautiful, sweet and loving she was. I especially remember Jeremy's sweetness and patience with her. He is a wonderful big brother and Savannah was a wonderful little sister. Savannah's outter beauty caught everyone's eyes, but her inner beauty caught everyone's heart. She will be greatly missed. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
