“ Dad, you will be missed. You were smart, gentle, strong, handsome, sweet, tough, and loving all at the same time. All of which I needed while growing up. You were there for me through the good times, the bad times, and made sure I survived them all. I know you will watch over us girls and I love you so much. To Heather, I am proud to have you as a step-mom. I look forward to sharing more memories with you throughout the years. Love always, Kellyann###imported-begin###Kellyann Tatum###imported-end##

“ We never understand why grief is a part of life. As a cancer survivor (so far) I know first hand at least part of the battle Scott fought so bravely. Time will help the pain for those left behind, and I have faith that Scott is in a better place. My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Kathy DuLaney##imported-end##

“ I only knew Scott through his parents, Jim and Barbara, who live in McCormick. His dad is a member of our school board here in McCormick. I would like to extend my sympathy to all of his family and friends. God is the source you need as you celebrate the life Scott lived, mourn the loss and give thanks for the time you had with him. Memories of times past and fellowship with one another will help. Be Blessed.##imported-begin##Jackie Brown##imported-end##

“ Scott, I met you in the fall of 1973 when you came into Boyce Middle School in Pittsburgh as the "new kid". You always had the Guinness Book of World Records with you - trying to devise a way to get yourself into that book! Our friendship took hold quickly, and the days of walking to my house across Boyce Rd. from the school started that first week. You would call your Mom saying you missed the bus, and you were at "this guy's house, Dave Lyons". You pulled that off a few times until Bobbi got wise! The stories and the memories are endless!! We've been through alot these past 37 years together, and in both thick and thin, the friendship stayed strong. You were always able to put a smile on my face, as well as everyone else, and your "free spirit" mentality made it fun to be around you. You've always been just like a brother to me... your Mom would call me her "3rd son"... I will miss you my friend, and until we meet again, the memories of the things we did and our weekly conversations we've had through the years will help keep me going!! I want to express my sincere condolences to everyone in the Lambeth family.##imported-begin##Dave Lyons##imported-end##
