“ I remember a handsome young man helping out in the kitchen with the trash during a family and friends gathering when everyone else had disappeared. That handsome and kind man was Scott. We were all in Cameron at the Rast's home.

“ I was heartbroken to hear about Scott's passing. I've been thinking a lot back on all the fun times we had in high school and in Myrtle Beach. Scott had the best smile - you couldn't help but smiling when you saw it. And he used to do this funny, silly dance to the song "Sookie Sue" - and somehow that resulted in me naming one of my dogs Sookie Sue. I was just telling my girls that story the other day.

My thoughts are with you all Mr. Rast, Mrs. Rast and Kristen.

“ As we were all younger but I can remember all of us gathering in Garden City one year for a week during the summer...and a love of V8. Those things have so much more meaning now... He's heaven bound now and looking down on us free of concerns or worries. Love and prayers to Aunt Vicky, Uncle Michael, and my cousin Kristen.
