

Sharon Lee Agudo

December 30, 1946 - January 10, 2019

Loris..... Sharon Lee Agudo, age 72, passed away Thursday, January 10, 2019.

Mrs. Agudo was born in Perth Amboy, NJ, a daughter of the late Charles and Roseann Hull. She was a retired Real Estate Agent and loved arts, crafts, shopping, and gambling at casinos. Her family considered her a "Jackie of all trades." She enjoyed going to the beach and looking for shells as well as fishing and crabbing. Mrs. Agudo loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, doing makeup, and many other things.

Survivors include her husband of 37 years, Jacinto Reinaldo Agudo; her daughter, Tammy Rounsavell (Dan); her son, Todd Demler (Mandy); seven grandchildren, Megan Ward (Matt), Kyle Lacovara, Cheyenne Rounsavell (Jesse Jones), Maxine Demler, Ryan Demler, Jordan Demler, and Danielle Demler; her great-grandchild, Charlie Rae Ward; her brother, Charles Hull, Jr.; and her sister, Lori Koczan.

A memorial service will be held Monday, January 14, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Loris Chapel.

“ Our sympathy & prayers are with her family. I will forever remember Sharon & treasure many great memories of our times together! She was truly gifted in so many areas, a painter, carpenter, seamstress, the list goes on & on; many of which she shared her knowledge with me. Many fun times were shared shopping for bargains or just sitting & shooting the breeze laughing! She will always hold a special place in my heart.
