“ Sharon and I worked together for 12 years. There's not one day that I remember not seeing a smile or laugh from Sharon when I work with her. Her laugh was contagious when she started people around her also laughed. Our Christmas parties with Sharon were a blast, there was never a dull moment when she was around. I will miss her dearly. “ I worked with Sharon though-out her 21 years at St. James Middle School. What an amazing bookkeeper she was! She kept our school running like a well-oiled machine. From payroll, tax forms, purchase orders, arranging substitutes, sending and receiving endless emails to whatever else she was asked to do, she did it with such patience and reassurance. Not once, did she ever turn you away when you needed to ask her a question or just sit and talk. I not only had the privilege to work with Sharon, but to teach her two daughters, Lauren and Helen. Oh, she was so proud of her girls and just beamed when she spoke of them. I watched the friendship evolve over the months between she and Nick, which later blossomed into a loving relationship. Nick had found his soul mate and Sharon had found hers. What a beautiful life they had with each other...the weekend trips, their cute little glances to each other at school, and their most recent trip to St. Thomas. Every morning Sharon brought ray of sunshine to St. James Middle. Most mornings she was the first person I would see at the front office and she always greeted me with a smile on her beautiful face. I will cherish the memories I shared with Sharon and tuck them away in a special place in my heart. ❤️

“ I was blessed to work with this precious, radiant soul for about five years when I was assigned to SJM as an ESOL teacher in the early 2000's. I can still feel the warmth of her smile and voice as I'd enter the building on the days I was assigned. Mrs. Bradley made every single person feel as if they mattered, both kids and adults alike. Over time, it became clear to me what a jewel she was as an individual content with loving her family and expressive in faith without ever uttering a single word, in her servitude of others. Thank you for having shared the light with which you were illuminated from above. Prayers of comfort for your loved ones and the St. James Community.

One day Sharon and I came to school with the same outfit on. From that day forth, whenever it was spirit week and twin day we always dressed the same as twins. We were definitely Mutt and Jeff... she was the statuesque one I was the "midget"! Definitely an honor to have her as my "twin".

Sharon was always a bright spot in the office. My heart is very saddened in her passing. Lots of love to you Nick and all of her family.

We will miss Sharon so much. She was so funny and one of the many bright lights in our office at SJM. Her office was always warmly lit and so inviting with lamps and music playing softly in the background. As we've all been exchanging "Sharon stories," it's become so clear that her door was always open to her SJM family as friends. Love and prayers for her girls and Nick, and her father, brother and sister.
